13 December 1956

Dear George:

STAT

Reference is made to visits by
STAT
J. H. McDonald, to various suppliers' facilities during the week of 25 November 1956.

As discussed with you previously, one of the reasons for these visits was to establish personal contact between the suppliers and our supply people, and further to work out a procedure for the re-ording of replenishment and/or emergency spares and special test equipment.

It is advised that the procedure indicated below has been established with the suppliers:

a. Upon determination that additional spares or test equipment
